

Colombo International Children's Book Fair 2026 (CICBF '26)

Welcome to a World of Wonder...

Step into the heart of enchantment at the First-Ever Children's Book Fair, set against the spellbound shores of Sri Lanka an island jewel gleaming at the southern tip of the Indian subcontinent.

Where golden sands whisper ancient tales and palm-fringed breezes carry the scent of stories, this landmark event opens its arms to publishers, creators, and exhibitors from around the globe.

It's a celebration of childhood, creativity, and the boundless magic of books.

Join us in crafting a radiant debut for every child who believes in the power of stories to unlock worlds unseen.

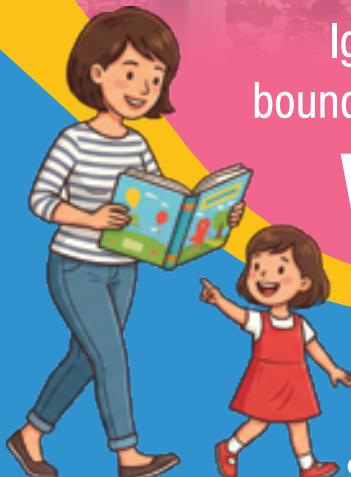

Showcase your books, engage young minds, and be part of history.

Ignite a monumental triumph in children's literature, boundless creativity, and transformative learning united with

Eligibility to participate in children's book fair

Publisher Requirements

Publishers need an established track record and publish children's books by their own institution, promotional materials, and complete applications demonstrating industry experience.

Importers: Import children's and young adults books from original companies and not pirate copies of any form.

Event Organizer Requirements

Activity organizers are required to submit proposals featuring engaging, kid-centric ideas such as interactive games (e.g., scavenger hunts and read-a-thons), thrilling adventure zones (e.g., fantasy quests and global story trails), hands-on workshops (e.g., DIY crafts like bookmark-making and character masks), immersive science labs (e.g., story-inspired experiments), and author-led storytelling sessions. Selection prioritizes high-quality concepts that align closely with the fair's mission to spark creativity, literacy, and fun.

Application Process
